

TARGET THE LARGEST LAW ENFORCEMENT AUDIENCE

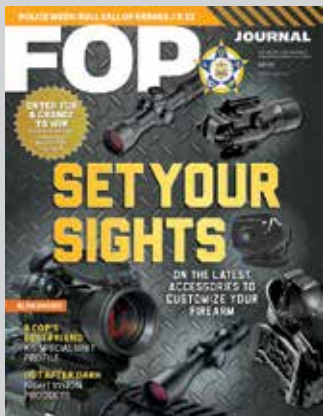

911MEDIA® creates access to more than 425,000 sworn law enforcement professionals through these association magazines and e-newsletters.

Each magazine is unique to its association's readership and delivers news, career and benefit information, human interest stories, new product content and other industry-related information.

These readers are loyal to their organizations and have a deep connection to their association's publication.

Strategic ad buys will grow your brand recognition in the nationwide public safety community.

Position your brand with law enforcement associations across the country and create a relationship with their members.
